

FINDING YOUR TREASURES USING TROVE

FOR FAMILY RESEARCH

Sunday 25 June 2017

1pm to 4.30pm

PRESENTER: JENNY HIGGINS

Learn how to use TROVE in more detail.

The first session will give an overview of the TROVE website before focussing on the online Australian historic newspapers.

In the second session, we will collaboratively explore ways of finding family information in TROVE newspapers, using submitted examples from course participants.

Course 707

HAGSOC Education Room
41 Templeton St, Cook

Cost: $25 HAGSOC members, $35 non-members
Includes afternoon tea

Book online under the Courses tab at www.familyhistoryact.org.au, or on the Registration sheet during Library hours on 02-6251 7004

Program

- 12.40pm Registration check-in
- 1pm How TROVE works
- 2.20pm Afternoon tea
- 2.40pm Directly helping you find answers on your ancestors using TROVE
- 4.30pm Close

About Jenny Higgins

Jenny worked at the National Library of Australia for fifteen years, with eight years as the family history librarian.

She has been using the online Australian historic newspapers since they went live and has delivered many TROVE talks at the NLA and family history societies.

Jenny is still finding TROVE invaluable for her Australian Dictionary of Biography work and her own private research.