- 2.7. Optional Two-Year Renewal of Membership
- Members have the option of a two-year renewal of membership at double the fee for a single year.
- 2.8. The Membership Card can be digital via the mobile app or paper. The card will include name, membership number, membership level and expiry date.

3. Election of the Council

(Section 20.3 of the Constitution)

- 3.1. Nominations of candidates for election as office-bearers of the Society or as ordinary Council members:
- a. must be made in writing, signed by 2 members of the association and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the nomination form); and
  - b. must be given to the Secretary of the Society not less than 7 days before the date fixed for the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place.
- 3.2. If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the Council, the candidates nominated are taken to be elected and further nominations may be received at the annual general meeting.
- 3.3. If insufficient further nominations are received, any vacant positions remaining on the Council are taken to be vacancies.
- 3.4. If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the people nominated are taken to be elected.
- 3.5. If the number of nominations received exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot must be held.
- 3.6. The ballot for the election of office-bearers and ordinary Council members must be conducted at the annual general meeting in the way the Council may direct.
- 3.7. A person is not eligible to simultaneously hold more than 1 position on the Council.

4. Award of Fellowship

and Honorary Fellowship of the Society

(Section 21.2 of the Constitution; Amended June 2008, Council decision November 2016)

- 4.1. The Council may confer the honour of a Fellowship [Fellow of the Heraldry & Genealogy Society of Canberra Inc. (FHGSC)] upon a member of the Society who has rendered distinguished service to the Society and who has made a significant contribution to the achievement of the objects of the Society through advancement of the cause of family history, genealogy or heraldry. While there is no requirement for the Council to confer an honour of a Fellowship each year, the number permitted to be conferred in any one year under this sub-section is limited to two.

- 4.2. The Council may confer the honour of an Honorary Fellowship [Honorary Fellow of the Heraldry & Genealogy Society of Canberra Inc. (Hon FHGSC)] upon a non-member of the Society deemed by Council to have rendered distinguished service to the Society, or to have made a significant national or international contribution to the cause of family history, genealogy or heraldry. While there is no requirement for the Council to confer an honour of an Honorary Fellowship each year, the number permitted to be conferred in any one year under this sub-section is limited to one.
- 4.3. Nominations for the award of Fellow and or Honorary Fellow shall be made to the Council of the Society by the Fellowship Sub-Committee of Council.
- 4.4. The Fellowship Sub-Committee shall comprise a maximum of five members, including the President of the Society, two other members of the Council, appointed by the Council, and a maximum of two Fellows, appointed by the Council.
- 4.5. An Honorary Fellow shall not be liable to pay any subscription to the Society.
- 4.6. Existing Fellows of FHACT will continue to pay nil for their annual membership subscription. Future Fellows will receive a fifty percent discount on what would have been their annual membership subscription.

7. Access to the Library

(Council decision April 1991; amended April 1993, 26 January 2000, 28 March 2001, 25 February 2004, 25 January 2006, September 2021)

- 7.1. Authorised access to the library includes members, non-members and other visitors approved by Council.
- 7.2. All members must have in their possession their membership card before admittance to the library.
- 7.3. All users of the library must have their name and membership number if applicable recorded in the attendance book.
- 7.4. New members awaiting membership card and number must produce their receipt and record "N/M" (New member) in lieu of their membership number.
- 7.5. Non-members are to be issued with a Reader's Ticket at a fee of $10 (incl. GST) per day, $20 (incl. GST) per week or $30 (incl. GST) for one month access. The Reader's Ticket is NOT transferable to a credit against a membership subscription but may authorise a waiver of the joining fee (see Bylaw 1).

8. Groups

(Council decision 25 August 2021)

- 8.1. Groups may only be created by Council following a written application by a group of members of the Society. This application should justify the needs for such a group, define its purposes and provide a list of members who would initially comprise the group.
- 8.2. Groups are bound by the Constitution of the Society.
- 8.3. Each group is part of the Society and as a sub-committee is directly responsible to the Council for the conduct of its activities.
- 8.4. Groups do not have the authority to raise or spend funds, except when this is done with the prior approval of Council and conducted through the Society's official accounts.
- 8.5. Groups do not have the authority to enter into any contracts on behalf of their group or the Society.
- 8.6. Groups are required to report regularly on their activities to Council, through a Councillor appointed by the Council to act as Coordinator to groups.

- 8.7. A Convenor of each group shall be appointed by Council on the nomination of members of the group. The Convenor is the official channel of communications between the group and the Council, through the coordinator of groups.
- 8.8. As of 1 November 2021, persons, other than invited guests, attending meetings or participating in the activities of groups are required to be members of Family History ACT. Non-members who were attending group meetings prior to this date can continue to be a member of the group.

9. Projects Policy

(Council decision 25 March 1992; amended 25 August 2004, 29 September 2021)

9.1. Objects

Members of Family History ACT (FHACT) are encouraged to work together on projects that meet the objects of the Society.

9.2. Purpose of assessment of a project

The purpose of seeking approval as a FHACT approved project is:

- a. To avoid duplication of both effort and outcome.
- b. To identify the project.
- c. To ensure clear responsibility for coordination of the project.
- d. To standardise quality and control of projects.
- e. To allow assessment of the project's importance to the study, preservation or creation of records relating to family history, heraldry and allied subjects.

9.3. Project category

Projects will be identified as either:

- a. A FHACT project.
- b. A joint project in cooperation with other bodies.
- c. An individual project.

9.4. Project criteria

Proposals submitted for approval by FHACT Council will be assessed according to criteria including but not limited to:

- a. The project relates to records of historical, heraldic and genealogical importance which are at risk of being lost or damaged.
- b. The project relates to records more than 75 years old.
- c. The project relates to records with Australian associated content.
- d. The project relates to the study, preservation or creation of records of national importance (i.e. Australian).
- e. The project relates to the study, preservation or creation of records unique to a specific area, time or occupation.
- f. The end product will be readily available to members of the Society.
- g. The end product will meet the Australian Genealogical Computer Index (AGCI) data entry guidelines.

9.5. Financial support

A Projects Coordinator will be nominated by FHACT Council. The coordinator will submit to the Treasurer an estimate of the cost of projects. Financial support will be provided by the Council under the following conditions:

- a. The project is a FHACT approved project.
- b. The product of the project will become the property of FHACT.
- c. A project budget is supplied.
- d. Consumable costs will be reimbursed only on production of a receipt and/or itemised statement of expenses (e.g. stationery, photocopying, computer disks, postage, etc). Travel and meals will not be reimbursed.
- e. Regular reports will be supplied to the Projects Coordinator, who will report to Council.

9.6. General guidelines

- a. A proposal should clearly address the criteria listed in 10.4.
- b. The nature of the project should be defined, with a clear indication of its importance to the study, preservation or creation of records relating to family history, genealogy, heraldry or allied subjects.
- c. A project plan should be included, detailing member resources required, funding sources and budget, milestones, and governance and reporting arrangements. Proposals should be directed to the Secretary.

9.7. Approval

Work should not commence until the project has been approved by FHACT Council.

All persons involved with the project must sign IP02 Assignment of Copyright form as detailed in the IP01 FHACT Copyright Policy.

10. Reciprocal Arrangements with Societies

(Council decision October 1983 reviewed annually; Amended June 2002, September 2008, September 2013, February 2014, November 2021)

10.1. Members of the following interstate and overseas genealogical and local societies have reciprocal rights to use FHACT library facilities:

- k. New Zealand Society of Genealogists
- l. Hall School Museum and Heritage Centre
- m. Yass & District Historical Society Inc.
- n. Society of Australian Genealogists *

(Although the Society of Australian Genealogists (SAG) has reciprocal arrangement with other societies, it has declined offers from Family History ACT. Nevertheless, as a gesture of goodwill, FFACT welcomes members of SAG to our Library.)

10.2. The arrangements agreed with each Society for the reciprocal rights are:

- a. For bona-fide visitors on presentation of their current membership card.
- b. The arrangement permits access to the library for research purposes.
- c. Members are required to abide by and accept conditions set down by individual Societies, including, the payment of any fees applicable for the use of equipment, photocopying etc.

10.3. Exchange of journals

- a. Journals are exchanged on a reciprocal basis with all societies who publish a journal or newsletter
- b. It is a general policy that the Society does not purchase journals of other Societies which are unwilling to participate in an exchange arrangement. Council may, however, exercise discretion at the recommendation of the Librarian to subscribe to society journals where the Society represents a jurisdiction at least at the state (Australia) or county (UK) level or equivalents for other countries and the journal is of sufficient high quality and represents the best means of filling an information gap in the library collection.

11. Publications Discount Policy

(Council decision 31 May 1995; Revised 25 Apr 2000, 28 March 2001 reviewed annually; Amended October 2001, Amended 24 September 2003, Amended January 2004, 25 January 2006, May 2010, March 2017)

16. Research Officer

(Council decision reviewed annually; May 2005, May 2010, April 2021)

- 16.1. FHACT offers research services conducted by an experienced team of researchers. Research Requests are processed in order of receipt. Once your request has been returned to you, you may submit another Research Request. A Research Request may be for:
  - Simple Research
Simple research is limited to 30 minutes. Options are:
    - Quick lookup
a service to those who are not able to access the library in person. Options are:
      - Specified resource
A quick lookup is limited to one specified source. Check the FHACT online library catalogue for the available source items. You may ask for more than one look-up in the same item if it can be carried out in the time period.
      - Cemetery lookup
A quick lookup is limited to one specified item. FHACT has comprehensive holdings of cemetery records and monumental inscriptions, especially for the local area. Check the society's online library catalogue for our cemetery listings. It should be noted that some records, for example those in the Father Brian Maher Collection, can only be accessed by the researcher in person.
    - General research
If the research is simple, it may be covered by the request fee.
  - Complex research
A request for more complex research will be assessed to determine if the Team can help and estimate the time required to conduct the research. You will need to pay the research fee before research can proceed.
- 16.2. Cost: Research Request Fee: $20
Research Fees: Members one free enquiry each year then $30/hour

Non-Members $50 / hour

- 16.3. FHACT also offers a consultation with a member of the Research Team. This is a free service for Members and a $30 per hour fee to a maximum of 2 hours per session for Non-Members.
- 16.4. Requests for Research Services are made via the FHACT Website.
